MESSAGE FROM THE GALA CHAIR

Last year we celebrated 40 years of the Vancouver International Wine Festival and 30 years of the Bacchanalia Gala and this year we have the great fortune to celebrate two more milestones: Bard on the Beach's 30th season in Vancouver and our presenting sponsor, Blakes' 30 years in business in Vancouver. How's that for kismet? Thank you, Bard, for your dedication to providing our city with quality entertainment for so many years, and Blakes, for your support this evening of both our charitable partner and the Bacchanalia Gala.

This year brings California back as our theme region and our hope is to transport you to a Californian vineyard for tonight's festivities. Many thanks to the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver's new Executive Chef, Colin Burslem, and his talented team for showcasing the wines so incredibly well with their inventive and delicious menu. They really give proof to the Shakespeare quote "good wine is a good familiar creature, if it be well used" — and Chef, you and your team have used the wine and food VERY well!

I am so honoured to be back as the chair of this year's Bacchanalia Gala. It is such a unique event bringing together two (and this year three!) great Vancouver institutions to contribute to the arts. And I would be remiss if I didn't extend a special thank you to Gala Manager Kelly Snider – this is her 12th Bacchanalia and without her skills, knowledge, patience, and guidance, we could not make this happen so smoothly.

I must express my thanks to Bard's Christopher Gaze, Claire Sakaki, Amy Benson, Ava Forsyth – and all of the other staff and volunteers that help us continually make this event more successful every year. I am so proud to be associated with you and all the amazing work you do in the community.

Thank you, Alan Ferris, and the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver – without this venue, your amazing staff and the magic of the Castle, we couldn't create this spectacular evening.

To our agents, winemakers, donors and auction committee – headed by Blair Curtis – your generosity of wine and your time is overwhelming. You make this so much more than a charity gala – you make this an event. We celebrate you all gratefully!

This evening is about giving each of you an opportunity to support Bard on the Beach, through both the silent and live auctions, where we have many incredible wines and unique wine and travel experiences. Remember that all of the proceeds this evening go to support Bard and their educational programs that benefit the youth of this city.

Thank you for being here, for your incredible continued support, and for celebrating with us the amazing food and wine of California! Enjoy your evening!

BENEFITING

GENERAL AUCTION RULES

- Participation in the auction constitutes acceptance by the bidder of all rules and conditions as set out in this document.
- All rules apply to the silent auctions and Live Auction
- The Vancouver International Wine Festival (VIWF) and Bard on the Beach Shakespeare Festival (Bard), in presenting this auction, make every effort to properly describe all auction items. All items are sold "as is", and the VIWF and Bard neither warrant, nor represent, and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of the description, genuineness, authorship, provenance, value or condition of the property. No statement contained in the description of the auction items or made orally at the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed to be warranty, representation or assumption of liability. Neither the LCLB nor LDB is responsible for the quality of the auctioned wine or liquor.
- The VIWF and Bard reserve the right to withdraw any auction item.
- In case of discrepancy between the items on display or actual gift certificate and the catalogue description, the display item or gift certificate shall be deemed the valid description for bidding purposes.
- Exact wine items may not be as stated in the catalogue.
- In the event of a dispute involving an auction item, the decision of the Gala Manager, or designate, will be final.
- Each bid will specify the item's value, minimum dollar increment, or reserve where applicable. The minimum bid amount will be indicated on the bidding system. All starting bids must either match the minimum bid amount or be higher, by at least the minimum dollar increment.
- All sales are final. There will be no exchange or refund on items by the VIWF, Bard, or the donor.
- Payment in full must be made the night of the auction regardless of when the wine is picked up.
- BC law requires that a 10% Provincial Sales tax will be added to all successful bids for wine and other alcohol.
- A payment receipt must be shown before the pick up and removal of any purchased item.
- All items that are purchased must be either: a) picked up from the Ballroom and taken home this evening, or b) picked up from the Boardroom at the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver tomorrow between 10:00 am and 12:00 pm, in order to avoid additional fees.
- Any wine items that are purchased and not picked up as noted immediately above may be subject to a $25 handling fee per lot. All such items will be transferred to the custody of Griffin Wine Storage and will be available for pick-up by making arrangements with Griffin directly. VIWF will have no further responsibility or liability for all such transferred items.
- Any wine items that are not picked up by March 15, 2019 will be subject to the normal storage charges levied by Griffin Wine Storage as well as their normal terms and conditions for storage. All such wine items will not be released until full payment of any fees due to Griffen, is made. It is the responsibility of the successful bidder to contact Griffin Wine Storage to arrange for pick-up of wine items and/or for payment of any applicable charges.
- All service items must be used within the period stated on the certificate, or from one year of the auction date, February 23, 2019.
- BC law prohibits the consumption of wine items that are purchased in the auction at this evening's event.

WHEN PASSION RUNS IN THE FAMILY

THE RESULTS ARE REWARDING

Powerful and brooding, with black cherry, blackberry and plum fruit shaded by toasty oak. Earth, mineral and spice flavors ride out through the lingering finish as the tannins build. Impressive, even though this doesn't shout Chianti Classico. Best from 2018 through 2028, 2,000 cases made.—Bruce Sauderson

MAIN EVENT: LIVE AUCTION

L1 FOR THE LOVE OF PORT Nine 750 ml bottles.

25th Anniversary Tasting of the Great 1994 Vintage

This is a truly rare opportunity! You and up to 11 of your guests will be led through a tutored tasting of nine top Vintage Ports from the great 1994 vintage by none other than Roy Hersh. Roy is one of North America's foremost experts on Port wines and is the principal of "For the Love of Port", (www.FTLOP.com). He also publishes a subscription newsletter currently distributed in 77 countries, in addition to his website and discussion forum. And he runs a travel business devoted to hedonistic "insiders" wine and gastronomic tours of Portugal and Madeira.

During the tasting session, Roy will guide your group in developing a far greater appreciation for these fabulous Ports from multiple Port shippers 25 years after the legendary 1994 vintage. Mr. Hersh has participated in the Vancouver International Wine Festival since 1997. The scheduling of this tasting event would be coordinated between the successful bidder and Mr. Hersh, who lives in Washington state.

Drew Malcolm of 13C Wine Storage has generously offered the use of his company's relaxed and comfortable tasting room in Vancouver for this event, or if you'd prefer to hold this event in your home in Vancouver, Roy will be happy to oblige accordingly.

The following nine bottles of top 1994 Vintage Port have been donated from the cellars of several notable Vancouver collectors, and from Mr. Hersh's own cellar:

- Taylor Fladgate (100 points and Wine Spectator co-winner of Wine of the Year)
- Fonseca (100 points and Wine Spectator co-winner of Wine of the Year)
- Broadbent (Roy Hersh will bring this bottle with him to the tasting event)
- Smith Woodhouse
- Niepoort
- Dow's
- Quinta do Vesuvio
- Graham's
- Warre's

2004 CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD MAGNUM VALUE: $3,000

One 1.5 L bottle

Château Mouton Rothschild is one of the three First Growths (the others are Latour and Lafite) in the Commune of Pauillac, Bordeaux. This property was almost single-handedly created and promoted by Baron Phillippe de Rothschild and in 1973 was elevated from Second Growth to First. Well known for it's artist labels since 1945, the label for the 2004 was painted by HRH Prince Charles to commemorate the Centenary of the Entente Cordial, concluded by Britain and France on 8 April, 1904.

1978 PAUL JABOULET ÂINÉ HERMITAGE LA CHAPELLEVALUE: $3,075

One 750 ml bottle.

The name of Hermitage La Chapelle is linked to the little chapel of Saint-Christophe overlooking the terraced vineyards along the Rhône. Maison Paul Jaboulet Âiné has been the sole owner since 1919. The vineyards are primarily Shiraz from several terroirs with each providing its own aromatic characteristics, as well as an elegant tannin structure, giving the wine great aging potential. Gerard Jaboulet, a frequent visitor to Vancouver and Managing Director when this wine was made, always said that the 1978 La Chapelle was one of Jaboulet's greatest.

Robert Parker – 100 points. "As heavenly and profound as it gets." "It's a perfect wine any way you look at it." Drink to 2040.

SAXUM WINE COLLECTION

One 1.5 L bottle and twenty-two 750 ml bottles.

A collection of the prized and scarce Saxum wines from California, collected over a number of years. Includes:

- 2009 Saxum Bone Rock James Berry Vineyard (1 bottle)
- 2009 Saxum Broken Stones (4 bottles)
- 2008 Saxum Broken Stones (4 bottles)
- 2004 Saxum Heart Stone Vineyard (1 magnum)
- 2010 Saxum James Berry Vineyard (2 bottles)
- 2009 Saxum James Berry Vineyard (4 bottles)
- 2008 Saxum James Berry Vineyard (1 bottle)
- 2010 Saxum Paderewski Vineyard (2 bottles)
- 2009 Saxum Paderewski Vineyard (1 bottle)
- 2009 Saxum Syrah Booker Vineyard (1 bottle)
- 2010 Saxum Terry Hoage Vineyard (2 bottles)

Saxum is one of the "hottest" wineries in Southern California, located in the coolest part of Paso Robles where cool marine air streams in from the Pacific. Saxum's founder Justin Smith is a second-generation Paso Robles farmer whose vineyards are mainly planted to Rhône varietals (Syrah, Grenache and Mourvèdre). He is passionately committed to wine growing and not wine making and he is a leader of the Rhone Ranger movement. These are quintessentially Californian wines combining great concentration and purity of fruit with the added dimension of minerality that reveals the awesome potential of Paso Robles.

LOTS #100

LOT 101

1975 MONTEREY PENINSULA WINERY AMADOR ZINFANDEL Value: $67.50 One 750 ml bottle.

1975 Monterey Peninsula Winery Late Pick Amador Zinfandel. Founder Roy Thomas made "full-blown, full-bodied" red wines from the outset in 1974, with small lots, low yields and extractive winemaking combined with microclimate selection producing unique products. In the early days, visitors would taste wine from a barrel, Thomas would then bottle wine from that barrel in front of the customer, and place a handwritten label onto the bottle, right in the tasting room. This big "Late Pick" wine had a long hang time, alcohol of 15-16%, and low sugar levels, different from the jammy Late Harvest wines. Purchased in San Francisco in 1978.

Donated by: Douglas Courtemanche

LOT 124 2014 BLACK HILLS NOTA BENE

One 1.5 L bottle.

Black Hills was a South Okanagan pioneer in 1996, and has evolved and matured into one of the premier quality wineries of BC. The wines of the modern era are helped by climate change and the longer, warmer growing seasons since 2011. The 2014 Nota Bene wine is compelling example, telling a rich story with bright fruit and savoury, South Okanagan terroir. John Schreiner writes, "...tantalizing signature of raspberry, plum, and fruit leather; rich velvety smooth tannins...well balanced, elegant," in his recent book "Icon", Flagship Wines from BC's Best Wineries. Average critic score 90 points.

LOTS #200

CALIFORNIA

LOT 201

1969 HEITZ CELLARS CABERNET SAUVIGNON Value: $2,500

One 750 ml bottle.

Napa Valley pioneer Joe Heitz founded his winery in 1961, and in 1965 acquired rights to Tom and Martha May's vineyard of superior quality Cabernet fruit, bottled as the first US "single vineyard" wine. Aged in 1000 litre casks, then in French oak for two years, Martha's is considered a benchmark for judging California Cabernets. This bottle was impeccably stored in Vancouver for many years. 92-95 points

LOT 202

1973 RIDGE VINEYARDS ZINFANDEL LATE HARVEST Value: $200

One 750 ml bottle.

Ridge Vineyards is one of California's great success stories. Founded in 1959, it produces fine wines from several appellations including the Santa Cruz mountains, whose cool climate and limestone sub-soils are particularly well-suited for viticulture. Pioneer winemaker Paul Draper has handcrafted minimal-intervention wines since 1969; this Zinfandel with 15-16% alcohol, and some residual sugar is a great example of the "big Reds" of 1980's California.

Donated by: Douglas Courtemanche

LOT 203

1975 CLOS DU VAL CABERNET SAUVIGNON Value: $650

Two 750 ml bottles.

Clos du Val is a well-known Napa Valley winery established in 1972. Located in the Stag's Leap District, it is part owned and managed by Bernard Portet, the son of Château Lafite's technical director. These early examples, in good condition, was purchased at the winery in 1977. 89 points.

LOT 205

1990 SILVER OAK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

One 750 ml bottle.

Silver Oak is a Cabernet Sauvignon specialist pioneered by Justin Meyer. All vintages since 1972 have been made with estate-grown grapes in the southernmost area of Alexander Valley. The 1990 Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon has a stable and lively translucent, ruby red colour. It offers aromas of bergamot, vanilla and hints of black cherry. This wine has an impressive, lively and bright, yet elegant attack and mid-palate with hints of red pepper flavour.

Donated by: Sid and Joan Cross

LOT 206

1993 BRYANT FAMILY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

One 750 ml bottle.

From the second vintage for Bryant. Made by Helen Turley. Delicious herb, coffee, cherry, truffle and hazelnut aromas lead to bright, rich, thick cherry, currant and berry flavours, draped with plush tannins and a beautifully tapered finish. Robert Parker 97 points.

LOT 209

1994 NAPA VALLEY CABERNET PAIR

Two 750 ml bottles.

1994 Stag's Leap Cask 23 and 1994 Silver Oak Cabernet. Legendary Napa Valley wines from a legendary vintage! Cask 23 was first hand-crafted by Warren Winiarski in 1974 as a superior example of Cabernet Sauvignon. Cask 23 is selected only in special years, from the SLV and Fay Vineyards. The designation has indicated one of the most elegant, if not simply the most complete, graceful and age-worthy example of Cabernet from the winery. Recently tasted, it takes 1-2 hours to open up; the nose is a beautifully fruity collage, the body firm and finish long. 92 points Silver Oak Cellars is a "cult-status" winery founded in 1974, and continues to be run by the founding family. Their 1994 Napa vintage was well-regarded and considered rich, with a core of black cherry, herb, dill and spice flavours that have turned supple and complex. In addition to Cabernet 85% it contains 15% of Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petite Verdot. 90-91 points

JW MORRIS CALIFORNIA "PORT" VERTICAL

Six 750 ml bottles.

This vertical contains vintages 1975, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981 and 1983 of J.W. Morris California "Port." Here is a "Blast from the Past" – California Port! J W Morris is an old California brand started in the early 1970's by Ken Toth using fruit from his Sonoma County Black Mountain vineyard. The "Port" was created from Zinfandel, Petite Syrah, Syrah, etc., treated exactly in the traditional way (even with some foot stomping), and bottled before its second birthday. (The modern brand has no connection to this winery of the 70's and 80's.) A bottle of the 1980 Port was recently opened for assessment and found to be sound, fruity, medium sweet with a firm finish. A good sip! Estimate 88 points. Enjoy some vinous California history.

LOT 241

MICHAEL DAVID WINERY SELECTION

Twelve 750 ml bottles.

This package includes six bottles each of the 2015 Lust Zinfandel and the 2016 Rapture Cabernet Sauvignon. The 2015 Lust is dark as night in the glass. A soft, decadent mouthfeel with flavours of dark black fruit, chocolate cake batter, crème de cassis, orange zest and bakers' spice. Dark, rich and decadent, this wine screams, Lust! The 2016 Rapture has a deep purple/garnet hue and aromas of caramel, vanilla and black current on the nose. Anything but wimpy, this full-bodied wine shows flavours of Bing cherries, cassis and hints of graphite accompanied by velvety tannins that are sure to please any palate.

2015 AQUILINI RED MOUNTAIN CABERNET SAUVIGNON

One 91 bottle.

One of just twelve produced, this is a 9-litre bottle of Aquilini Red Mountain's inaugural vintage. Brooding and dark with expressive nose of clove, nutmeg, black cherry and pipe tobacco. A lush, layered mouth with great acid, medium body and long rustic tannins. This is a serious wine that is age-worthy.

Donated by: Aquilini Red Mountain

LOT 246

KING ESTATE PAIR Value: $600

Two 3 L bottles.

One double magnum each of the 2016 Pinot Gris and 2015 Pinot Noir from King Estate. The 2016 Pinot Gris has a glistening straw yellow colour. The nose bursts with fruit flavours like ripe pear, pineapple and key lime pie with subtle aromas of damp slate and violets. The finish is clean, long and generous. The 2015 Pinot Noir has a deep garnet colour with bright crimson tinges. The nose has aromas of ripe black cherry, plum and liquorice. The palate has dark fruit flavours, like blackberry and black cherry, with a subtle clove finish. This is full, supple and complex, coming together nicely with softened tannins and pleasant acidity.

FOREIGN AFFAIR GRAN Q PAIR

Six 750 ml bottles in a wooden case.

Three bottles each of the 2012 Gran Q and 2015 Gran Q. The grapes were meticulously hand harvested between late September and mid-October, then naturally dried in the appassimento method for 105 days. This allows some of the water to evaporate which produces a more densely concentrated juice. After slow fermentation on the skins, the wine is then pressed and aged for 28 months in select French and American oak barrels. This is a very big, rich, smooth and high alcohol intense wine.

LOT 252
2009 THE MALLEEA BY MAJELLA
Six 750 ml bottles.

"The Malleea" by Majella is recognized as one of Australia's great collectible wines. A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz from the famous Coonawarra Wine Region in South Australia, the wine has been included in the Langton's Classification of Australia Wines for many years. "The Malleea" is regarded by many as the perfect example of "The Great Australian Blend." 2009 was an excellent vintage, and has been selected by our winemaker, Bruce Gregory, from our wine museum. He suggests the wine could be aged for another 10-15 years before drinking.

LOT 325

2013 BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO "MONTOSOLI"

Two 1.5 L bottles.

One of the most sought-after wines from Montalcino, Montosoli is consistently a blockbuster red. Its intense ruby red colour tends toward elegant garnet with age. On the nose, it shows a complex personality with a delicious blend of black cherry, raspberry, violet, liquorice, vanilla and black pepper. Extremely enticing, opulent and elegant on the palate, with a warm, long-lasting finish, Montosoli is a wine for special occasions.

Donated by: Altesino

LOT 326

2014 TENUTA ARGENTIERA VILLA DONORATICO Value: $791

One 12 L bottle.

This Tuscan red from the Bolgheri DOC region is a classic Bordeaux blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot. The Villa Donoratico is a very large and complex wine that never falls into banality, showing a character deeply attached to this area of origin. Matured in oak casks, extraordinary in its drinkability and this fidelity to the type that can give way to the sensations of red fruits on the nose, and slightly spicy on the palate with a nice ending note reminiscent of liquorice.

Donated by: Tenuta Argentiera

Value: $990

2014 PELAGO MARCHE ROSSO IGT

One 3 L bottle.

This red blend is from the Marche Province just kilometers from the Adriatic. The blend is 50% Montepulciano, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Merlot. Inky ruby red tinged with purple hints. The nose unfurls a typical Cabernet profile of intense, clean, refined spice notes of coffee, black pepper, liquorice and tobacco against a backdrop of grass and hay. The mouth unfurls forest berries, vanilla and mineral aromas, and noticeable but mature tannins all in harmony with the wine's elegance.

Donated by: Umani Ronchi

LOT 328

2014 BAROLO SORDO MAGNUM

Six 1.5 L bottles.

FRANCE

LOT 337 1961 JABOULET-ISNARD CÔTE RÔTIE One 750 ml bottle.

1961 – one of the outstanding vintages of the 20th Century. Côte Rôtie is at the Northern end of the Rhône, so-named the "roasted slopes" due to intense sunlight. The grapes are Syrah, with a small percentage of Viognier permitted. M. Jacques Jaboulet has said on several occasions that the 1961 Jaboulet-Isnard was the same wine as 1961 Jaboulet Côte Rôtie, and that Isnard is an "alternate" label created to increase market share. Good fill level. Stored carefully in Vancouver for decades. 92 points.

Donated by: Lee Cross

Value: $250

1973 BORDEAUX TRIO

Three 750 ml bottles.

1973 was not a great vintage in Bordeaux but it came along after a succession of very poor vintages (except 1970) and so the 1973s were well-touted by the Bordeaux merchants. These three still drinkable 1973 left bank Grand Crus are now collector wines and are ideal to celebrate a birthyear or anniversary. One bottle each of Château Giscours, Château Haut Batailley and Château Beychevelle.

Donated by: David and Alice Spurrell

LOT 340

1989 CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT BRION, PESSAC-LEOGNAN Value: $2,670 One 750 ml bottle.

La Mission Haut Brion produces one of the finest wines in Bordeaux. Robert Parker thought very highly of the 1989, rating it a perfect 100 points! He said "...explosive aromatic, handsome deep colour. Full-bodied with extraordinary opulence as well as sweet, well-integrated, velvety tannins." This fresh, lively blockbuster La Mission will last for 30-40 years.

Donated by: William Gross

LOT 341 1989 CHÂTEAU BEYCHEVELLE, ST. JULIEN

LOT 342 1990 CHÂTEAU LYNCH BAGES, PAUILLAC

Three 750 ml bottles.

"This magnificent Lynch Bages has been drinking well since the day it was released and it continues to go from strength to strength. The biggest, richest, fullest-bodied Lynch Bages until the 2000, the fully mature 1990 exhibits an unbelievably explosive nose of black currants, cedarwood, herbs and spice. The majestic, classically Bordeaux aromatics are followed by a full-bodied, voluptuously textured, rich, intense wine with superb purity as well as thrilling levels of fruit, glycerin and sweetness. This beauty should continue to provide immense pleasure over the next 15+ years." Robert Parker

Lот 343

1990 CHÂTEAU L'ÉVANGILE, POMEROL

One 750 ml bottle.

Château l'Évangile (owned by The Rothschilds of Château Lafite) is bordered on the north by the vineyards of Château Pétrus in Pomerol, and on the south by the great St. Emilion Château Cheval Blanc. Évangile can make wine of majestic richness and compelling character and did so in 1990, an excellent vintage in Bordeaux. A true rarity, even for collectors. This wine shows an excellent fill level, and is fully mature. 89-92 points.

Donated by: William Gross

LOT 344

1990 CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD, PAUILLAC

One 750 ml bottle.

Luscious black currant flavoured Cabernet fruit makes Mouton beguilingly easy to drink. Rich complex flavours, powerful ripe tannins and an extremely long finish are all hallmarks of this wine. The label artist for the 1990 is Irishborn Francis Bacon.

2000 PAVILLON ROUGE DE CHÂTEAU MARGAUX Value: $1,030

One 1.5 L bottle.

The exceptional concentration in the grapes in 2000 was not only achieved in the old vines, which produce the first wine; in fact, all the plots produced very ripe and concentrated grapes. Glorious aromas of freshly picked raspberries, with tiny hints of cream and minerals. Full-bodied, with superfine tannins and a long, long finish of berries and cream.

LOT 348

2001 CHÂTEAU CLERC-MILON, PAUILLAC

One 750 ml bottle.

A deep and glittering garnet red, the wine has a highly refined nose which develops aromas of graphite, nutmeg, vanilla and dried flowers. From a supple and attractively dense attack, it builds on substantial and well-integrated tannins, underpinning a rich, smooth body with sappy, liquorice flavours. The elegant and full-bodied finish ends on a touch of spice, completing the harmony of the wine.

Value: $205

2005 DOMAINE COMTE SENARD CORTON BRESSANDES

Three 750 ml bottles.

Located on the famous hill of Corton in Burgundy, the Bressandes Grand Cru is 100% Pinot Noir from only 1.58 acres owned by Comte Senard. The Corton-Bressandes is exuberant and filled with red fruit; the mouthfeel is suave and persistent. The wine will only improve with some cellar time.

LOT 350

2009 DOMAINE LATOUR-GIRAUD, MERSAULT CHARMES 1ER CRU Value: $150 One 750 ml bottle.

A top premier Cru Chardonnay based wine from Meursault Burgundy. Bright medium yellow. Very subtle, pure aromas and flavours of peach, lemon, orange blossom, hazelnut, wild herbs and crushed rock. Highly concentrated and suave, boasting a terrific inner-mouth spicy lift and a rising, firm-edged finish.

Donated by: Friend of the Festival

LOT 351

2009 CARRUADES DE LAFITE, PAUILLAC

One 750 ml bottle.

Superb bright flavours. The mouth gradually takes shape, full-bodied and generous at first, then presenting ripe tannins, well-developed structure and a very fruity finish.

Donated by: Randy Kaardal

LOT 352

2009 CHÂTEAU COUTET, BARSAC (SAUTERNES)

Twenty-four 375 ml bottles.

Coutet has always been one of the leading, as well as one of the largest, estates in Barsac. The cepage is mainly Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc with a small percentage of Muscadelle, with the resulting blend aged for 18 months in oak. Very lightly toasty, this is more floral for now, with lively honeysuckle and pineapple notes up front, giving way to richer hints of warm brioche, fig, glazed pear and lemon shortbread that should emerge more with time. The long, lacy finish has the poise and balance for long-term cellaring.

2009 CHÂTEAU BEAU-SITE, ST. ESTÈPHE

Twelve 750 ml bottles.

This lovely, well-situated Cru Bourgeois property was acquired by the well-known Bordelaise family of Emile Castéja in 1955. The 2009 is a soft wine, beautifully rounded, the fruit open, soft and generous. Great final acidity, with toast and spice.

Donated by: Borie-Manoux

LOT 354

2010 CHÂTEAU CANTENAC BROWN, MARGAUX Value: $1,010

Three 1.5 L bottles.

Great vintages follow one another, but they are never the same. The 2010 vintage is much different that of 2009. The freshness of this vintage is remarkable with such naturally high alcohol content. Amazingly, the acid, alcohol, and tannins form a perfect harmony. Surely this is what makes the 2010 vintage so powerful. It's exceptional to see how such harmony, with all the extraordinary elements, gives us such a "sumptuous" wine.

Lот 355

2012 DOMAINE DES SÉNÉCHAUX

Two 3 L bottles.

This Châteauneuf-du-Pape reveals a flattering nose that opens on aromas of cherry, wood, and ripe red fruits. Agitation produces notes of Morello cherry and liquorice to complement the harmony of the wine. A subtle blend of unctuousness and power, the attack gives way to a bouquet of cassis and raspberry flavours with hints of spice and vanilla.

Donated by: Friends of the Festival

LOT 356

CHAMPAGNE LAURENT-PERRIER GRAND SIÈCLE

One 1.5 L bottle.

Grand Siècle is a Pinot Noir and Chardonnay blend, with the latter being slightly dominant. It has a bright colour, with a brilliant yellow hue. Its subtle aromas of honey, hazelnuts, grilled almonds and brioche, make this the perfect companion for refined dishes.

Donated by: Friends of the Festival

Value: $600

Value: $600

LOT 357 CHAMPAGNE KRUG ROSÉ NV

One 750 ml bottle.

Krug Rosé is the only prestige cuvée rosé to be blended from a rich palette of wines from three different grape varieties – Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay – producing a wonderfully expressive, skin-fermented wine able to deliver unparalleled and characteristic colour and spice. A resting time of at least five years in Krug's cellars gives Krug Rosé its subtle bubbles and long-lasting elegance, distinction and finesse. Subtle red fruits, honey, and citrus notes, eternal bubbles. 94 points.

LOT 358 CHÂTEAU PESQUIÉ SELECTION

Three 1.5 L and one 1 L bottle.

Château Pesquié is a family estate located at the foot of Ventoux Mountain in the south of the Rhône Valley. Enjoy the following selection: two magnums of the 2010 Château Pesquié Terrasses AOC Ventoux Rouge, one magnum of the 2009 Château Pesquié Artemia AOC Ventoux and a double magnum of the 2009 Château Pesquié AOC Ventoux Quintessence Rouge
